

ABOUT ME

HI, I'M GEORGY MICALLEF, A PASSIONATE GRAPHIC DESIGN STUDENT
(CURRENTLY STUDYING AT MCAST FOLLOWING AN ADVANCED DIPLOMA COURSE IN DIGITAL DESIGN 2ND YEAR)
A LOVE FOR CREATING VISUALLY ENGAGING AND MEANINGFUL DESIGNS. I
SPECIALIZE IN POSTERS, LOGOS & BOOK COVERS AND ENJOY TURNING
IDEAS INTO IMPACTFUL VISUALS. THROUGH MY STUDIES, I'VE GAINED
SKILLS IN TOOLS LIKE ADOBE PHOTOSHOP, ILLUSTRATOR, INDESIGN,
FIGMA, AND I'M ALWAYS EXPLORING NEW WAYS TO INNOVATE AND GROW
AS A DESIGNER.

The Power Of Eating Fruit & Vegteables

Healthy food is happy food!

White The Shield

White fruits and vegetables protect your body from getting sick and help you feel your best every day.

Your Superpower Plate

Every time you eat fruits and vegetables, you're fuelling your superpowers. The next time you sit down for a meal, make your plate as colourful as you can.

The more colors you eat the more superpowers you get

Fruits and vegetables are like tiny superheroes. Each one has special powers to help your body grow strong, think clearly and stay healthy.

Green The Body Builder

Green fruits and vegetables build strong bones and muscles, helping you grow tall and stay strong.

Red The Heart Helper

Red fruits and vegetables help keep your heart beating strong so you can run, jump, and play all day.

Orange and Yellow Sunshine Energy

Yellow and orange fruits and vegetables help your eyes see better and give you the power to think fast.

- ❑ This is a children's book that I created using a mix of Adobe Illustrator and InDesign. The book was eventually printed and made into a physical copy.
